178. CATEGORICALLY ELIGIBLE HOUSEHOLDS.

Households with all members meeting one (1) of the criteria below are categorically eligible for Food Stamps. Categorically eligible households are resource and income eligible. The Department will not compute resource eligibility. The Department will not compute gross or net income eligibility. Categorically eligible households must meet all other Food Stamp eligibility criteria. Categorically eligible households have the same rights as other households. Effective Date: (6-1-94)

01. Cash Benefits. All household members are approved for, or already get, TAFI or AABD or SSI cash benefits. The household is categorically eligible. Effective Date: (7-1-98)

02. Benefits Recouped. All household members have AABD or SSI benefits being recouped. The household is categorically eligible. Effective Date: (7-1-98)

03. Grant Less Than Ten Dollars. All household members not getting TAFI or AABD or SSI because their grant is less than ten dollars ($ 10). The household is categorically eligible. Effective Date: (7-1-98)

180. CATEGORICAL ELIGIBILITY ENDS.

Categorical eligibility ends when one household member is no longer eligible for TAFI, AABD or SSI. If the household is still eligible under Food Stamp rules, the household will continue to get Food Stamps. If categorical eligibility ends and household income or resources exceed the Food Stamp limits, the household is no longer eligible for Food Stamps. Food Stamps will stop after timely advance notice. 304. COUNTING RESOURCES FOR RECIPIENTS.

Determine resources for recipients throughout the certification period as described in Section 601 of these rules. Effective Date: (4-11-06)

01. Anticipated Resources. If resources are anticipated at any time during an upcoming month or months, a resource determination must be made. Anticipated resources affect the entire month's eligibility for the month of receipt. Effective Date: (6-1-94)

02. Unanticipated Newly Acquired Resources. Consider unanticipated newly acquired resources available as of the first day of the month following the receipt of the new resource. If the client spends or uses up the resource before the first day of the next month, the resource will not be counted the next month. Effective Date: (6-1-94)

305. RESOURCE LIMIT.

The Food Stamp resource limit for households with one (1) member who is age sixty (60) or over, or disabled, is three thousand dollars ($ 3,000). The resource limit is three thousand dollars ($ 3,000), even if the person age sixty (60) or over is the only person in the household. The resource limit for other households is two thousand dollars ($ 2,000). To be considered as disabled, a person must meet one (1) of the criteria listed in Subsections 216.02 through 216.10 of these rules. Effective Date: (3-20-04)
