

Supervising for Quality and Impact June – July 2020

Skillful supervision and management are essential ingredients of a high-quality, effective legal aid delivery system. The importance of these functions is reinforced by ABA standards of practice and LSC performance criteria. To build stronger and more effective organizations, legal aid and public interest law providers must institute supervision and management systems that encourage innovation, nurture talents, support diversity and reward hard work. Supervising for Quality and Impact provides an introduction to the skills and organization systems necessary to guide the work of legal aid providers and staff.
